NEED OF MISSION WORKERS.

One of Two Important Topics Before Episcopal Council.

Philadelphia. Oct. 22.—Bishop Tuttle of Missouri presided over to-day's assions of the Missouri presided over to-day's assions of the Missouri Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church, at which two important topics were discussed. The first, which consumed the entire morning session, concerned the desirability of a change in the missionary cason of the charch.

The principal speakers on this subject were Rishop Satterlee and Bishop Brewer of Montana.

The orincipal speakers on this subject were Highop Satteries and Eisbop Brewer of Montana.

The escond referred to the need for additional mission workers and how to meet it addresses being made by Bishop Cameron Mann of North Dakota, the Reverend J. C. Roper of the General Theological Seminary and the Reverend L. B. Ridgley of China.

Bishop Satteries, in discussing the first-named subject, advanced many reasons why, a change would be beneficial. In his opinion the restrictions placed upon the missionary council hampered that body in promoting the work for which it was are aided. New conditions have arisen, he said, and new methods should be devised to meet them.

as he believed the organization was satisfactory. The subject of mission workers, discussed at the afternoon session, brunght out at the afternoon session, brunght out mumerous suggestions for increasing the number of volunteers. An appeal was received from the Bishop Payne Divinity School at Petersburg, Va., for funds, and a resolution offered by Bishop Brown of Kaness was adopted, requesting the beard of managers to apprapriate $100.00, to be distributed among the Bishops in the South. Greetings were received from the diocesan conference of Rochester, England, and a reply was immediately cabled.

OF HOUSE MEMBERS

Delay in Legislation Subject of a Conference Between Mayor Wells and Councilman Boyce.

EXECUTIVE MAY SEND MESSAGE

Property Owners and Taxpayers Complain of Methods Practiced by the Lower Branch of the Municipal Assembly,

While in conference with Mayor Wells at the City Hall yesterday, Councilman Joeeph Boyce took occasion to call the chief executive's attention to the stubbornness with which the House of Delegates is d laying legislation

As a result of the conference it is probalower house to a realization of their duty. Just what form of action is to be taken has not been determined. It is intimated that a message from the Mayor, if the latter should consider it a prudent means, may serve to awaken Sweeney. Foutana, Cronin and others, or perhaps a resolution of denunciation from the City Council.

The effect which the latter action would have on the Houge is viewed with skepticarm, as the House is not looked upon as a body that would tremble to any great expense.

cased of trying to dray prosecution of the bribery cases.

Kinney's excuse for voting against Coun-cil fills is that several of his measures, have been treated with apparent contempt by the upper branch, but the other Dele-gates have not seen fit to offer any excuse for themselves.

When asked about the proposition of sending a nessage to the House of Delegates. Mayor Wells stated that he had not had time to fully consider the matter, and was not aware that such a course would be within the bounds of his executive au-
